MAKE A SOLID PLAN TO RAISE MORE MONEY

Many organizations don't have someone to ask the tough questions, someone to help them create a strong plan to exceed their fundraising goals. Maybe you don't know where to begin OR you simply haven't taken the time to update your current plan for next year.

Having a solid plan takes focus and time. But it doesn't have to be painful or scary. Lori has helped organizations like yours raise more than $300 million. And counting. She'll guide you through the process of gathering and assessing information AND teach you the best practices to create your solid, achievable annual fundraising plan.

This is a fun, rigorous and proven Fundraising Boot Camp webinar series. More than 100 organizations have "graduated" from Lori's Boot Camp webinar series and have gone on to raise thousands and in some cases hundreds of thousands more unrestricted operating dollars.

“In the first three months of the year we raised more from individuals than ALL of the previous year! Lori’s Boot Camp taught us to be clear, bold, and to talk about our people and money stories. Boot Camp caused us to sit down, figure out our goals, and identify system to have our board and staff be more accountable. Book Camp works!”
